

Babe Ruth League, Inc.
Southwest Region Hall Of Fame
Nomination Procedure

The Southwest Region has established a Regional Hall Of Fame to honor those persons and organizations within the Southwest Region, who have played a vital role in the development of the Baseball/Softball programs for the youth between the ages of 5 and 18 years old. A person or organization to be elected must have at least (15) years of significant contribution of time, effort and devotion to the Babe Ruth Baseball/Softball program.

Selection Committee:

The Southwest Regional Commissioner shall appoint a selection committee of (3) or (5) individuals to avoid a possible even vote. Appointments to the committee shall be for a period of (2) years or longer at the Regional Commissioner's discretion.

Elections: In order to be considered for induction, the following minimum requirements for nomination are:

1. A letter explaining what the individual or organization has done for the local youth and Babe Ruth Baseball/Softball and why they should be considered for the Southwest Regional Hall Of Fame. The letter shall provide sufficient information including positions held, i.e.,

(administrator, coach, manager, official, etc. and term of each position held.)

2. A minimum of (2) additional letters of recommendation from local community leaders, business people, clergy, etc. supporting the recommendation for the selection to the Southwest Region Hall Of Fame. It is also recommended, (but not mandatory), letters of support from local Babe Ruth League District Commissioners and the State Commissioner accompany the above recommendations.

Routing for any nomination shall be as follows: Send all documentation to Joe Cormier: Chairman of The Southwest Region Hall Of Fame Committee @ cormierj63@yahoo.com.

The Hall Of Fame Screening shall review and vote on new applicants. A nominee with the majority vote will have their name or names submitted to the Southwest Regional State Commissioners for the final vote. The name of the person or persons nominated for the Southwest Regional Hall Of Fame will remain on the ballot for (3) years, after this period has expired in order to be reconsidered, their names would have to be resubmitted with a new application.

Notification Of Inductee

Only the Southwest Regional Commissioner will notify individuals and organizations of their induction into the Southwest Region Hall Of Fame. The vote within the committee is to be held in strict confidence by them only and the committee chairman will notify the Regional Commissioner only.
